In time for holidays, Marietta author presents latest inspirational release

Staff reports Nov 11, 2018

Author Debbra Stephens' latest release offers readers a daily devotional for the Christmas season.

Stephens, author of "The Jesus Touch, Prepared," "ID'd," and "Crowned," is launching a new seasonal devotional series, "Advent Living Books" as a way to help people remain focused during the often hectic holiday season. "Christmas Travelers — Daily Readings for the Christmas Season" is the first title released in this series.

"It is her contribution to help usher the weary into the presence of God, through time spent in His Word, and reclaim the peace and joy of Christmas," a news release about the book stated.

Acworth Bookstore will host a book signing event featuring Stephens and others on Saturday, Nov. 17 from 1 to 5 p.m. The public is invited to meet and greet the author, who will discuss her latest book.

"Christmas Travelers" features different people who have journeyed in search of Christ, as found in the biblical narrative. In considering each encounter, the reader can discover that they have much in common and share the same need to draw near.

"The book offers a resource to guide hearts and focus minds on the real wonder and beauty of the season. This devotional book also provides a means for families to enrich their holiday tradition and make lasting memories," the release stated.

Acworth Bookstore is at 4857 N. Main St., Acworth, 30101. "Christmas Travelers — Daily Readings for the Christmas Season" is also available on Amazon. For more information on the author and her published works, visit www.DebbraStephens.com.
